

Cortex Handy Hints

- Cortex for Clubhouse Decking allows a contractor to build a completely hidden deck project.
 - Perfect for stairs, first board, last board, and board replacement.
- Packaging: 100 Lineal Foot Package
 - Why lineal feet and not square feet?
 - This product is used on perimeter boards and stairs.
 - Lineal Feet is how contractors measure these applications.
- All Eight colors available. Identified by an ID label.
- Components:
 - 224 Screws
 - 300 Plugs
 - 2 Setting Tools
- Packaged 6 Units to a master carton.

FAQs

- Are the screws corrosion resistant?
 - Yes, these screws are guaranteed for the life of the project not to rust or corrode.
- Will the plugs pop out of the deck?
 - No the plug has a friction fit connection and it guaranteed not to pop out for the life of the project.
- Can I use another screw?
 - No, to obtain the warranty the proper screw and plug must be installed with the setting tool.
- Can I buy separate plugs/screws?
 - No, The plugs and screws are sold as kit to ensure they are always used together.
- How do I remove a fastener that has stripped out below the surface?
 - Video link

Cortex Installation Tips

- Use at least an 18V cordless drill or impact driver.
- Always use a fresh bit. And let the setting tool disengage from the fastener before stopping.
- Gently tap in the plug.
- To remove a plug, drive in another screw into the existing plug and back it out like a cork.
- Make sure to have your screws, plugs, and setting tools out at the start of the job.